

WELCOME TO THE HOME OF VIRTUAL TRAINING

Virtual is here to stay

Get ready to step into your virtual world

The world was always going to go digital. But no one saw 2020 coming.

Virtual working became the standard almost overnight.

Tools like Zoom, Teams, Google Chats went from being something leaders used to liaise across offices and squeeze extra meetings into a packed travel schedule to a fixture of everyone's working day.

The way we communicate at work has changed forever.

But what does this mean for the way you deliver training?

Concerns about safety, cost, and efficiency abound, and they're well justified.

After all, if you can deliver the same learning outcomes from anywhere to anyone and bring minds together without the need for expensive hotel stays and carbon-heavy travel, what's not to like?

That said, you can't just take your existing material, run it over Zoom, and expect to achieve the same outstanding learning outcomes your participants deserve.

Delivering magnificent, live, and interactive virtual training experiences is a skill all of its own.

And that's where we come in...

The Virtual Training Team

We love virtual training. It's what we do, and it's what we've always done.

We've been helping trainers all over the world become masters of virtual training for over 10 years. We've studied the science and mastered the methodologies so you can be sure that you're in safe hands.

No matter your industry or sector, the team is here to walk alongside you as you journey into your virtual world.

- Tens of thousands of hours of training delivered over the last 10 years
- Thousands of people successfully trained and upskilled through our virtual programs
- Training delivered to participants in over 70 countries
- Our Net Promoter Score is consistently over 9.3

Our approach

A conversation, not a presentation

Our workshops are always a two-way conversation. This means everyone is involved and engaged from start to finish for learning that lands.

Live and interactive

Our virtual workshops are designed and delivered with participation and engagement at their core.

Crystal clear delivery

Every element of our workshops fits together like a jigsaw; with each section expertly designed to seamlessly flow into the next.

Built on science

Our virtual training is grounded in good science, research, and psychology. We've created a suite of virtual workshops that are grounded in theory and alive to the practical realities of training delivery.

Design Studio

The virtual world is one of limitless opportunity. There's a dizzying array of tools at your disposal, and everything from the activities you build into your workshop, to the platform you choose, is yours to decide.

However, this opportunity cuts both ways. If you don't have the time, expertise, or resources to create powerful virtual learning experiences, your programs and workshops will fall short of your expectations.

Fortunately, we've got 10+ years of virtual training experience, and we want to share our knowledge with you.

Here's what we can do for you

Consultancy

Whether you're snagged by a small technical issue or need advice on a full strategic rollout, we have the answers you need.

Co-create magical virtual training experiences

Work in partnership with us to create incredible live and interactive virtual training experiences.

Training design from the ground up

Bring in our 10+ years of expertise and get your virtual training program right the first time.

Convert your existing training material

We won't let your hard work go to waste. Instead, we'll virtualize it and deliver it back to you fresh and ready for the virtual world.

Virtual Events

The future of events is virtual.

The days of expensive hotel bookings and carbon-heavy travel have been numbered for a while. Now with the arrival of COVID-19, conventional face-to-face events are fast becoming a thing of the past.

Virtual events are the natural alternative, but if you're new to the virtual world, the thought of providing a seamless experience for your guests can be intimidating.

We've been supporting companies with their virtual events for years, so we've got the expertise you need to make your virtual event a roaring success.

Wherever you are in the world, we're here; from giving you consultative advice and technical support, right up to running and hosting the whole thing for you.

Thinking of cancelling your events? Don't!

Planning

When you bring lots of people together on a virtual platform, it's easy for people to feel lost amongst the noise. We'll help you avoid this by planning every one of the steps that goes into creating an incredible virtual event.

Technical support

We've got the expertise to sit behind the scenes and make sure everything runs smoothly and make sure you squeeze every ounce of utility out of the technologies you choose.

Delivery

Our people have been delivering and hosting virtual events for years now, long before they were popular! Let us take control of every aspect of the delivery and hosting for a smooth, interactive event to remember.

Virtual Consultancy

Virtual training is a complex web of moving parts. Any one of these parts can hit a snag at any time. When this happens, taking the right actions to get things moving again is crucial.

We're here for you whether you need a few hours with one of our experts to solve a technical issue or specialist input to roll out a global virtual training program. No challenge is too small or too large for our virtual training consultants.

So, no matter your needs, we'll create a virtual consultancy arrangement that exceeds your expectations.

What's The Difference?

Accreditation

Accreditation takes things one step further. It's proof of a level of brilliance in virtual training that many aspire to, but few achieve. In short, we don't give these out easily.

To be accredited by us, a trainer must demonstrate consistent delivery of high-calibre virtual training. This is assessed through a recorded session that's independently assessed by two of the keenest minds in virtual training. These two coaches then meet to moderate and decide if the candidate meets the exacting standards. Whatever the result, the candidate will receive a feedback report. If they pass, we'll accredit them as competent to deliver our products 'out of the box'.

Certification

Certification demonstrates that your people have attended, engaged, and successfully completed one of our virtual training workshops or programs.

As a reward, they'll receive a certificate and digital badge they can proudly display on social media or in email signatures. This will set them apart as having been exposed to virtual training techniques, skills, and knowledge from the cutting edge of evidence-based virtual training.

Why choose us?

There's more to discover on your learning journey...

We're the Experts

Our experience

We've been designing and delivering virtual training for over 10 years and have taught thousands of trainers and designers from all around the world to do the same.

Playbooks

Each Masterclass includes an interactive PDF handout that's packed with resources and tips and where you can make a note of your thoughts and actions.

Platform support

We've got bags of resources that will get you tech-ready. Whether you are using Zoom, WebEx, Adobe Connect, or Microsoft Teams, we've got you covered.

Virtual badge and certificate

Show off your status as a skilled virtual trainer with a virtual badge to add to your LinkedIn profile and email signature, and a certificate to evidence your successful completion of the Program.
